

Guidelines & Requests

Loman Ministries is a faith-based ministry. Income is dependent upon honorariums received and the sale of ministry product.

While there is no set fee, we do request that travel roundtrip expenses be paid plus honorarium to be set by the church or organization.

If given the option, a motel room is preferred. However, if a motel room is cost prohibitive, accommodations in a private residence is acceptable.

I enjoy fellowship. I have found that interaction with those to whom I am ministering outside the context of the services is beneficial. I am open to meals in homes or restaurants. It is best if my main meal is the lunch meal.

I trust these simple guidelines are helpful in planning our time together. If you need any additional information, please contact me via email.
