Morris All nature's works His praise declare, to whom they all belong; There is a voice in every star, in every breeze a song. Sweet music fills the world abroad with strains of love and power; The stormy sea sings praise to God, the thunder and the shower. To God the tribes of ocean cry, and birds upon the wing; To God the powers that dwell on high their tuneful tribute bring. Like them, let us the throne surround, with them loud chorus raise, While instruments of loftier sound assist our feeble praise. Great God, to Thee we consecrate our voices and our skill: We bid the pealing organ wait to speak alone Thy will. Call to Worship

We come in reverent awe before the Lord our God—for great is the Lord!

We come, to join with all creation
in singing new songs to the Lord our God.

We come in worship and praise—
for the Lord God is worthy of our praise!

We come, to share together
the news of our Glorious Lord's saving deeds.

We come with songs and prayers—
to give well-deserved glory to the Lord!
We come, to bring our offerings of worship and praise to the Lord our God—
whose holy splendour, honour and majesty shines forth from God's presence.
