Notes: Sermon Text Subject Spiritual "To Do List" (things God has shown me today)

BOUQUETS...

John Quincy Adams: All that I am my mother made me.

Henry Ward Beecher: The memory of my sainted mother is the brightest recollection of my early years.

Napoleon: Let France have good mothers, and she will have good sons.

Winston Churchill: My greatest teacher...my mother.

Dwight L. Moody: All that I have ever accomplished in life, I owe to my mother.

Thomas Edison: I did not have my mother long, but she cast over me an influence that has lasted all my life.

James Garfield: Upon his inauguration as president of the United States, kissed his Bible, and then his mother and said, You brought me to this.

Abraham Lincoln: All that I am or hope to be I owe to my angel mother. No man is poor who has a Godly mother. I remember my mother's prayers and they have always followed me. They have clung to me all my life.

St. Augustine: It is to my mother that I owe everything.

George Washington: My mother was the most beautiful woman I ever saw. All I am I owe to my mother. I attribute all my success in life to the moral, intellectual, and physical education I received from her.

Daniel Webster: If there is anything in my writings that is commendable, I owe it to my mother.

John Wesley: My mother was the source from which I derived the guiding principles of my life. I learned more about Christianity from my mother than from all the theologians in England.

John Newton: My dear mother, besides the pains she took with me, often commended me with many prayers and tears to God; and I doubt not but I reap the fruits of these prayers to this hour.

Booker T. Washington: If I have done anything in life worth attention, I feel sure that I inherited the disposition from my mother.

CHRIST BLESSING THE CHILDREN

Some mothers were bringing their children to Jesus to bless them.

On this wonderful day when we honor and thank all mothers, we happily welcome each of you. May this be a time when we remember our families and pray for each family member.

Call To Worship

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

—Psalm 23

From the Pastor -

Thank you for the affirmative recall vote on April 28.

The children's chorus says, "I am the church; You are the church; We are the church together."

I am happy to continue to work together in this branch of God's vineyard. He knows the way we should take and will be there to lead and guide us every step of the way. Heaven is our goal, yet there is still a great mission He has called us to, while here on this earth.

Looking forward toward the next year of service,

Pastor Ruhad Owers
