

*Shout joyfully to the LORD, all the earth; Break forth in song, rejoice, and sing praises.
 Sing to the LORD with the harp, With the harp and the sound of a psalm,
 With trumpets and the sound of a horn; Shout joyfully before the LORD, the King.
 Let the sea roar, and all its fullness, The world and those who dwell in it;
 Let the rivers clap their hands; Let the hills be joyful together before the LORD,
 For He is coming to judge the earth.
 With righteousness He shall judge the world,
 And the peoples with equity.
 Psalm 98:4-9*

Welcome to this service of worship. In the spirit of the psalmist, joyfully let us lift our hearts to God, joining together in song and prayer and waiting upon the Lord that we may be refreshed in the Spirit and encouraged for the week ahead.

Recently, the Internet carried the story of a church youth group traveling through the South in a large motor home. All was going smoothly until they came upon a long string of stopped vehicles. Whatever the trouble was — an accident, road work, a police chase — they could do nothing for awhile. As they grew bored and frustrated, some of them came up with a thoughtful plan. They decided to go to as many vehicles as possible and offer the occupants the use of the bathroom in their motor home. Soon, several people responded to the invitation.

Then, another good idea surfaced. They saw a flat-bed truck also in line. They went to the driver and asked him if they might stand on the truck bed and play their musical instruments and sing. He consented. Before long, they were “on stage” playing and singing Christian music. Other travelers, hearing the joyful sound, gathered around the truck and participated in the activity. The youth had found ways to turn a troublesome delay into an opportunity to make a Christian witness.

The worshiper who sings ... drinks more deeply of the message of the hymns. The gospel as found in our hymns is the same as that in the Scriptures.

The worshiper who sings ... becomes more deeply involved in the service; less of a spectator and more of a participant.

The worshiper who sings ... draws more closely to those who worship with him.

The worshiper who sings ... expresses faith by lifting his or her voice in praise to God.

The worshiper who sings ... upholds the service, making it finer and richer for fellow worshipers, the pastor, the church and God.
