A hearty welcome to all who have come to worship. We gather in gratitude before our loving Creator and Sustainer. Let us approach God with purity of heart and reach out to each other with care and joy.

CALL TO WORSHIP

PASTOR: It is a good thing to give thanks unto the LORD, and to sing praises unto thy name, O most High:

CONGREGATION: To shew forth thy lovingkindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness every night,

PASTOR: For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy work:

CONGREGATION: I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

PASTOR: The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon

CONGREGATION: Those that be planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God.

PASTOR: They shall still bring forth fruit in old age;

PASTOR & CONGREGATION: To shew that the LORD is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Psalm 92:1, 2, 4, 12-15

Instead of trusting Christ, modern-day thinkers insist on using the light of human wisdom alone for answers to eternal questions. We need the Sunlight of God to find truth.

The tragedy of this situation was graphically illustrated in a humorous skit performed by Karl Vallentin, a Munich comedian. Walking on a stage where everything was dark except for a small area under a street lamp, he began to look for something on the ground. He told the policeman who came on the scene that he was trying to find a key, whereupon the two continued the search.

Finally the officer asked, "Are you sure you lost it here?"

"Oh, no," said Vallentin as he pointed to a corner, "It was over there, but here is where the light is!"

The devil fears the light, and this is one reason why we should always keep it burning. A governor of the Bahamas, who was about to return to England, promised to do his best to procure from the Home Government any favour the Colonists might desire. What think you was their unanimous request?

"Tell them to tear down the lighthouses. They are ruining the colony!"

The men were ship-wreckers, and they hated the light that showed where the treacherous rocks were. The devil so hates the light, that he would tear down every spiritual lighthouse in the land, if he only could. —
