Spiritual "To Do List" (things God has shown me today)
(tillings God has shown the today)

Christians are monotheists, meaning we believe in only one God. Yet we talk about the doctrine of the Trinity. In the church year, the Sunday after Pentecost is known as Trinity Sunday. It's a day for focusing on what theologians call the Triune God — the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Someone said about the concept of the Trinity, "You could lose your soul if you don't believe it, and you could lose your mind if you try to explain it."

The doctrine of the Holy Trinity is wholly practical; it is revealed to us, to discover to us our high origin and the greatness of our fall, and to show us the deep and profound operation of the triune God in the recovery of the divine life in our souls: that by the means of this mystery thus discovered, our piety may be rightly directed, our faith and prayer have their proper objects, [and] the workings and aspiring of our own hearts may cooperate and correspond with that triune life in the Deity, which is always desiring to manifest itself in us.

We welcome everyone to worship on this wonderful day as we celebrate both Fathers Day and Trinity Sunday. Let us honor our own fathers, but also the revelation of God as Father/Creator, Son/Redeemer and Holy Spirit/Comforter.

Call To Worship

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

All glory to our living God!

All praise to our Creator!

Glorious in splendour, glorious in majesty!

Let us worship God together!

All glory to our living God!

Let all the earth cry "Glory!

To the Father, to the Son, and to the Spirit, three in one!"
